Workshops

Teaching Congregations to Sing (morning) – John Bell

John Bell is a minister of the Church of Scotland and a member of the Iona Community's Wild Goose Resource Group. He leads seminars and worships in liturgy, scripture and song at home and abroad. We will explore why we sing and what helps and hinders. Suitable for everyone who wants to sing a new song to God.

Singing with the Global Church (afternoon) - John Bell

A session enabling us to sample songs which are accessible to old and young, come from the global church and can enrich our worship.

A Visual Celebration of Diversity (morning and afternoon) – Jo Love

Jo Love is a deacon of the Church of Scotland who works with local congregations developing their worship life, particularly through the creative arts and rediscovering the potential in human conversation. Each of these two sessions invites us to make our mark as we create a piece of community art which we can focus on in the closing worship. User-friendly to the artistically talented and terrified alike.

Bible Study (morning) and Conversation(afternoon) with Bishop David

An opportunity to explore Paul's image of the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12.12-27) or to enter into conversation with our Bishop and Primus.

Welcoming and Supporting Refugees in our Communities (morning and afternoon)

Hugh Grant from St Mary's Dunblane and colleagues from Stirling Citizens for Sanctuary will share their experience of working with refugees who have come to our communities over the last year. They will invite participants to think about the range of ways we can respond to this growing need in our communities.
