

QUIET GARDEN AT GLENEAGLES

www.quietgarden.org

Tuesdays 2-5pm May 30th, June 27th and July 18th 2017

to be led by

The Rev William Hogg, The Rev Giles Dove, The Rev Tracy Dowling with an introduction and welcome at 2pm

“Don’t just do something, sit there!”

Our aim is to provide an opportunity for stillness and reflection for visitors of any faith or none in the beautiful setting of Gleneagles, a chance to wander around this recently created wild garden or walk the grass maze and finish the afternoon with a short service in the private 16th century chapel on the drive.

Warmth, tea and coffee will be available.

The first Quiet Garden was a dream of the Rev’d Philip Roderick that came true 25 years ago. The Trust to which the Quiet Gardens are affiliated is in Buckinghamshire and has the vision of spreading a network of opportunities for stillness and reflection aided by the beauty of the garden.

Whatever our context, be it home or the workplace, let us all seek to find solitude as well as companionship, personal silence as well as good conversation...

‘Be still and know...’ (Psalm 46:10)

ALL WELCOME - a suggested Donation of £3 to the Quiet Gardens Trust
