

The Bield at Blackruthven

Holy Week and Easter Retreat at the Bield 2019 “The Lit Bush”

Sawai Chinnawong- Glory of the Cross

With
Marianne & Robin Anker-Petersen
& friends

Tues 16 (10am) to
Sunday 21 April (4:30pm)
Cost £32 per day
£70 per 24 hour

We welcome you to spend as much or as little time with us during Holy Week and Easter as you wish.

To step back to reflect on the meaning of Jesus' last days, death and resurrection is also an invitation to give our spirits a spring clean. We invite you to join us in giving God the space to open us to new ways of praying, listening, understanding, seeing, sensing. We will let poetry speak to our deepening sense of Jesus' journey and cast light on our own.

You may choose to be in silence. You may want somebody to accompany you during your retreat or for a one-off conversation. Let the Spirit help you decide what is the right pattern for you.

Daily Rhythm

The daily rhythm will include morning and evening prayer, sharing ways of praying together (Lectio Divina, Gospel Meditation, Meditation, Praying with Art, Body Prayer).

Every afternoon there will be a Poem for the Day. Invited guests will share a favourite Easter poem with us and talk about its meaning for them, invite us into silent reflection and a time of sharing how it affects us

There will also be guided explorations in nature which can open us up to meeting with God in new ways.. The Bield has superb gardens and much variety on the surrounding farm

Special Holy Week events include:

Maundy Thursday– Sharing of the Passover meal (Seder) In the Jewish tradition

Good Friday - Silence, and Passion Music in the Chapel

Easter Saturday - Great Vigil

Easter Sunday – Dawn service with option of renewing baptismal vows.

At this time of year the Bield is teeming with new life and an abundance of greening. You will be supported in your retreat by the wonders of the Bield environment. Our other facilities include an inviting art space, heated swimming pool and outdoor labyrinths.
