

Right Rev Ian Paton (Bishop of St Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane) to take Christmas Day Service at St Margaret's Church, Leven.

The Right Reverend Ian Paton, recently installed as Bishop of the Diocese of St Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane in the Scottish Episcopal Church, has generously offered his services for the Christmas Day eucharist at St Margaret's Church in Victoria Road, Leven. Their Licensed Lay Reader, Ian Scott, is presently looking after the church, as it went into vacancy a few years ago, and as a result it is currently without a Priest in Charge. Ian said he is delighted with the Bishop's support, which demonstrates his fresh approach towards, and support for the churches and congregations in his Diocese. The service will take place at 10:30 am on Christmas Day. All are welcome.

St Margaret's Church, Leven.