

Celebrating the Psalms

Scottish Church Theology Society Conference

Jan
12th & 13th
2021

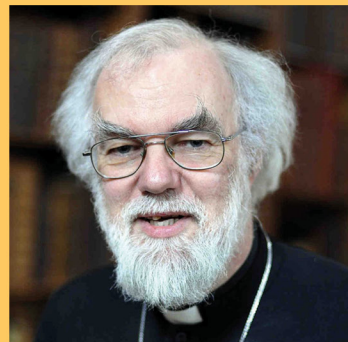

11am on Tues 12th January: Psalms of Temple and Church

SUE GILLINGHAM is Emeritus Professor of the Hebrew Bible at the University of Oxford. She was ordained recently as a Permanent Deacon in the Church of England and serves at St Barnabas' Church, Jericho, Oxford. She is completing the third of a three-volume Reception History Commentary on the Psalms with Wiley-Blackwell, and she very much looks forward to sharing some of the fruits of her teaching and research.

2pm on Tues 12th January: Set on Fire: Augustine and the Psalms

ROWAN WILLIAMS has recently retired as the Master of Magdalene College, Cambridge. Prior to that he was Archbishop of Canterbury, and is renowned as a Welsh bard as well as an international speaker and writer.

2pm on Wed 13th January: The Psalms and Scotland

JOHN BELL is a minister of the Church of Scotland who works for the Iona Community in the areas of worship, spirituality and social justice. With his colleagues he has produced a range of resources for public worship, most recently Living with the Psalms (SPCK). He lives in Glasgow.

Cost of Conference is £25 ($34US). To register send email to Alec Shuttleworth at revshuttleworth@gmail.com for details of how payment should be made. Please include your full name and contact details (phone email and postal address.) Zoom links will be supplied in the week before the conference.
