

Below are some media links to the Glasgow Multi-Faith Declaration for COP26 which was launched today - I hope that this will be helpful in relation to getting the message out there. Thank you Bishop Marc for your 'heads up' interview with BBC Radio it has been very well received - best wishes
Maureen

Information for dissemination

Scottish and UK religious leaders have signed a declaration calling on governments to take transformational climate action at COP26.

More than 50 religious leaders across Scotland and the UK have signed the Glasgow Multi-Faith Declaration calling for transformational climate action at COP26. We are proud to have been working behind the scenes pulling together this amazing example of faiths working Together For Our Planet.

The full story and Declaration are on our website for you to read: Glasgow Multi-Faith Declaration for COP26 – Interfaith Scotland. You can also watch a recording of religious leaders and representatives reading the Declaration in the website article, or on YouTube.

Please share our posts about the Declaration on social media, we would appreciate any support getting the word out there: Facebook and Twitter.

You can also listen to Bishop Mark Strange from the Scottish Episcopal Church talking about the Declaration on BBC Radio 4, here is a link to the recording (listen from 01:04 to 05:54): BBC Sounds, Sunday 19 September 2021
