

16 Days of Activism 2021 (25th November – 10th December) against Gender based violence

Mothers' Union is calling for an end to all forms of violence and abuse.

We come together to focus our prayers for those living with Gender-Based Violence (GBV) and those making a stand for change, as well as improving our understanding of the impact of GBV across society. Domestic abuse and GBV affect people in different ways. By having this focus, we are not forgetting others.

Our members show such passion and commitment in their work, as they make communities and individuals safer around the world.

Let us not be overcome but through our prayers and actions work together to make our world a place where we people can live to their full potential, without fear, in the knowledge that they are precious, have rights and that they are wonderfully made.

The Mothers' Union in the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway invite all in The SEC Province to unite in prayer beginning with a Zoom gathering of "Thursdays in Black" on Thursday 25th November at 13.00 – 13.15.
