DIOCESE of St ANDREWS, DUNKELD and DUNBLANE

Priest-in-Charge of the Highland Perthshire Linked Charge
Holy Trinity, Pitlochry; St Andrew, Strathtay;
St Adamnan, Kilmaveonaig, Blair Atholl

The Bishop of St Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane is very pleased to announce the appointment of the Ven Peter Blundell as Priest-in-Charge of the Highland Perthshire Linked Charge (Holy Trinity, Pitlochry; St Andrew, Strathtay; St Adamnan, Kilmaveonaig, Blair Atholl).
The Licensing Service, by the Acting Bishop, the Right Revd Nick Bundock, Bishop of Glasgow and Galloway, will take place later this year, details to be announced.
Peter was ordained in the Diocese of Melbourne, Australia, most recently serving in the Diocese of Bendigo, Victoria, Australia, as a Parish Priest and as Archdeacon focusing on the smaller rural communities.
Peter says, "Jeannette and I are very much looking forward to becoming part of the Highland Perthshire worshipping community and I look forward to our journey together seeking God's grace and vision for his Church in the coming years."
Peter and Jeanette are very welcome as they join us in the Diocese of St Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane and the Scottish Episcopal Church.
